

Free Flow Fun Art

We are proud to present Free Flow Fun Art. Please note that there is no requirement to be an inspired, educated or a gifted artist. This workshop is for a fun and a time to relax.

There will be no judging or critiquing of any art produced. Your art work will be original and as unique as you are.

Sharon Bell has been a creative face painter for 20 years. She has traveled to educate herself by professional face artists from around the world.

As Sharon developed her love for face painting something happened. She started to paint one of kind unique paintings. To her surprise she was accepted into many art shows. In 2016 won a Jurors Choice Award at the Lindsay Art Gallery

Saying this she goes with no preconceived idea when she starts to paint. She lets the thoughts go from her soul, to her head and out her finger tips. The Free Flow approach that is always rewarding, fulfilling and fun.

She encourages everyone to try Free Flow Art. Many people will say I can't paint. Everyone can paint!!! We were all born with an artistic ability. Its that fluff ball in your head that says you can't paint. Don't listen to that little fluff ball you can paint and you can enjoy painting.
